

Communication Matters

Time-Tested Strategies by Parents and Schools to Reduce Conflict & Improve Outcomes for Students with Disabilities

Sponsored by the Mid-Hudson
Regional Affiliate
of the
NYS Special Education
Task Force

Wednesday, April 26, 2017
6:30pm-8:30pm

Independent Living, Inc.
5 Washington Terrace
Newburgh NY 12550

- This free training features a video production developed through the collaborative efforts of many experienced parents, advocates and school administrators, who demonstrate common communication barriers that may arise during Committee on Special Education (CSE) meetings along with proven strategies to promote collaboration, creativity and agreement in Individualized Education Program (IEP) development.
- Attendees will hear what both parents and school personnel each wish the other knew, in order to work with them in the most effective way. Recommendations will be provided for those who may be new to special education as well as for those who have participated in many CSE meetings. A live facilitated discussion will be conducted with the viewing audience as an opportunity to share perspectives and thoughts on the conflict-reducing strategies highlighted by those representing typical CSE team members.
- Parents, guardians, general education and special education teachers, school administrators and psychologists, service providers and advocates are all encouraged to attend and participate in an honest and productive discussion resulting in improved outcomes for students with disabilities.

Space is limited. Registration is required by Friday 4/21/17

Online at: <https://goo.gl/forms/YPhLOqel7xVsJB432>

Participants

Questions?

Special Education Directors , CSE
Chairs and School Administrators

Parents, Educational Advocates, and Parent Center staff

Phone:
Dorothy Richards
845-331-0541 x18

E-mail: drichards@rcal.org

The facility is handicapped accessible

Discussion Facilitator:
Christopher Bayer,
Executive Director Exceptional Learners,
Newburgh Enlarged City School District

Discussion Facilitator:
Renee Falanga-Brenner,
Early Childhood Specialist,
Independent Living Inc.