

Mid-Hudson Regional
Early Childhood Direction
Center (ECDC)

Early identification can change outcomes!

Presents...

“Everyday Behavior Management”

OCFS Training Requirement – Child Day Care Program Development

Presenter: Renée Falanga-Brenner

This free workshop will examine the history of traditional classroom discipline and alternate, effective methods of classroom management including guidance and conflict resolution.

Tuesday April 25, 2017

6:00 – 9:00pm

Hosted by

Cedar Street Day Care

35 North Cedar St., Beacon

Information Includes:

- Definition and functions of behavior
- Identification of children’s emotional needs
- Factors that impact guidance and discipline
- Effective methods of positive classroom management
- Intentional teaching of social and emotional skills
- Strategies to address challenging behaviors
- Training certificates provided

Space is limited! Call Debra at Cedar Street Day Care to register by Tuesday April 11th at 845-838-3949

Support for families, educators and professionals working with children with developmental delays and disabilities from birth through age 5.

(Se Habla Espanol)

INDEPENDENT LIVING INC.

Promoting Choice, Self-Determination & Total Participation since 1987

Middletown

441 E. Main Street
Middletown, NY 10940
(845) 342-1162
Fax: (845) 342-1192

Newburgh

5 Washington Terrace
Newburgh, NY 12550
(845) 565-1162
Fax: (845) 565-0567
Videophone: (845) 764-8384

Monticello

10 Prince Street, Suite 12
Monticello, NY 12701
(845) 794-3322
Fax: (845) 794-3323